

Rural Canada is a vast untouched landscape that extends for thousands of miles from the urban centres in the south all the way to the Arctic Circle.

For centuries this land has been peopled by proud and independent Canadians who have chosen to live and work here.

Captured by senior producer John Lovelace and written, narrated and edited by Melinda Friedman, these biographies are a reflection of the spirit and vision of Canada.

Canadian Biography Moments collections featured in this package include:

- Part 1: The New Pioneers
- Part 2: The Women of Canada
- Part 3: The Artists of Canada
- Part 4: The Builders
- Part 5: The Aviators
